Planned Giving

The Corinthian Society

is a special society honoring those individuals who demonstrate wisdom and strength. They understand the importance of providing for the future of the Indiana Masonic Home at Compass Park. The Society is named for the richest order in architecture, where the projecting parts of a building unite with Corinthian columns to form a beautiful, perfect, and complete work.

The Society recognizes individuals who have included the Indiana Masonic Home Foundation in their financial estate planning by leaving a legacy of hope for the future care of their fellow brothers and sisters. Membership serves as a lasting testimony to lives well spent and a tribute to one of the principal tenets of Freemasonry - Charity.

Joining the Corinthian Society is as easy as filling out a non-binding Letter of Intent form available on request or from our website.

Benefits Include:

- Invitation to and recognition at the Annual Corinthian Society Recognition Dinner
- Corinthian Society Medallion Clock and pin for each member
- Listing in the Annual Donor Honor Roll in the Freemason Magazine
- Invitation to the Annual Corinthian Society Dinner with the Grand Master
- Fellowship with other Society members, Foundation and Home officials, and Grand Lodge Officers
- E-mail updates and alerts on information about the Home
- Invitations to special events sponsored by the Indiana Masonic Home Foundation
